

SOCIETY

Two Topeka girls who will be students in the east this summer, are Miss Rebecca Welty and Miss Mildred Lewis. They will leave Saturday, stopping for a visit to friends in Chicago, and taking a trip to Niagara Falls, and will then go to Cambridge, Mass., where they will study in the Radcliffe (Harvard Annex) during the summer session. Miss Welty will study playground work, and Miss Lewis will take physical training.

Miss Welty is a graduate of Washburn college, and Miss Lewis has also been a student in Washburn. They will return to Topeka in the late summer or early autumn. Before their return they will go to New York, take a trip down the Hudson, and will spend a short time in the city of Washington, D. C.

Miss Ruth Bauer will entertain her bridge club this evening at her home in Topeka avenue.

A party of Topeka people will have a summer's outing in the north this summer, occupying a cottage at Lake Geneva, Wis. The cottage is one owned by the Prudens family, and Miss Gladys Prudens, who has been teaching in Bethany college, will be one of the party at the lake. Miss Lenore Monroe and Miss Cynthia Monroe will leave Monday and will be at the cottage for two months. The Prudens family, Miss Beatrice Shakeshaft and Miss Charlotte West will leave later in the week to join them at the lake. The Prudens family will spend the summer at the lake, and later in the summer, the party will have other guests.

Mrs. Harry Wolf was hostess at a meeting of her sewing club this afternoon. Miss Grace Winegar, of Burlington, Colo., was a guest of the club.

Miss Edith Ingham, who taught domestic science in a school in Fresno, Cal., this year, is remaining in the west to teach in the summer school. The school has removed itself to the mountains for the summer term. The equipment and students and teachers have gone to the highlands, where they will remain all during the warm weather.

Miss Ingham, with more enterprise than teachers are usually capable of after a year's work, will establish a cafeteria, take necessary helpers with her, and will be assisted by the students in the domestic science department of the school in the planning of the meals, combining instruction with practical experience.

The Topeka Federation of Women, after holding a number of meetings of the executive board, have appointed the following heads of committees, all of whom have accepted the offices: Mrs. George Farkhurst, head of the music committee; Mrs. F. W. Watson, education; Mrs. J. C. Gafford, social; Mrs. W. A. McCarter, education; Mrs. J. C. McClintock, justice; Mrs. A. A. Robinson, forestry; Mrs. H. O. Garvey, household economics; Mrs. C. J. Evans, civics; Mrs. A. A. Godard, club house; Miss Lucy Kingman, hall and properties; Mrs. F. W. Bowen, corresponding secretary.

The officers who were chosen at the last annual meeting are: Mrs. S. S. Estey, president; Mrs. A. Masburg, first vice president; Mrs. C. F. Spencer, second vice president; Mrs. S. S. Beggs, secretary; Mrs. William Macfarren, treasurer; Mrs. W. A. Johnston, parliamentarian; Mrs. O. L. Moore, auditor.

The date for the annual luncheon, the first meeting after the summer holidays, will be held Thursday, October 1. This is called president's day. The custom of giving a luncheon was inaugurated last fall, and the party given at the Country club as the opening of season's federation activities, is remembered as one of the pleasantest parties of the year.

Mrs. E. F. A. Reinisch and Mr. Reinisch's mother, Mrs. Margaret Nellis, gave a picnic party Tuesday at Gage park for relatives of Mr. Reinisch from Lawrence. The guests were shown over the park and supper was served in the late afternoon. The guests from Lawrence were: Mr. and Mrs. E. Seider and their children, Mrs. Paul Kasold and her children, Mrs. Otto Rost and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Kennedy. Mrs. Bruce Procher, of

PEGGY AND COMPANY

Off to Chase Butterflies in the Cow Pasture With a Complete New Wardrobe.

Preparations for Peggy's visit to the country went ahead with a stir and bustle that generally marks most every plan wherein Peggy's interests are concerned.

Peggy's folks are pleased, of course, to think that their dear little daughter is to enjoy herself amidst the greenwood shades and verdant cow pastures. Indeed, they are very glad that their little sunshine is to spend a few pleasant days chasing butterflies and dallying with the brown-eyed heifers.

Father couldn't quite understand it, it is true, why a place as insular as a farm should demand several new dresses. Aside from a large trunk, she is taking every bag and hatched in the house and a few extra boxes.

It is noticed on the way to the train that while Peggy carries her handkerchief and her head with an air, she is encumbered with little else. Tom labors along with only an occasional protesting grunt and manages pretty well with two large suitcases, a hatbox and several packages.

Black Hawk, N. M., was also a guest: Mrs. Fritz Patrick of LeCompton, and Mrs. E. F. Lester and Miss Mildred Berger of Topeka, Mrs. Nellis and Mr. and Mrs. Reinisch completed the party.

The West Side Forestry club will meet Thursday with Mrs. Wm. Macfarren, Mrs. E. E. Ames will be assistant hostess. Mrs. Ward Burlingame will read a paper, and roll call will be answered by items about the natural resources of Alaska.

A picnic party at the Harry Baker ranch included Miss Mildred Agard and her guest, Miss Aurelia Schekner, of St. Louis and Miss Willie May Rogers, of Canton, Ga., and Miss Lillian Lutz, Miss Dorothy Miller, Miss Gertrude Gray, Miss Roxie Vancil, Miss Marie Vancil, Miss Grace Dant, Miss Bertha Clay, Miss Katharine McFarland, Miss Emilie Seery, Miss Margaret Ewers, Miss Helen Reinbach and Miss Florence Bowman.

The wedding of Miss Sylvia Alford and Mr. John Osborn took place in Lawrence Saturday evening. The marriage has some interest to Topeka people, as the bride is the cousin of a Topeka woman, Mrs. D. S. Shepard, and Mr. Osborn is the son of the late Judge Stephen Osborn, who was known throughout the state, and a sister of Mrs. Hale of Los Angeles, formerly Miss Grace Osborn of Topeka.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Miller of Eureka,

Peggy was more thoughtful of mother and only required her to tote a haphazard of odds and ends.

Mother feels that she would be willing to tote twice that much three times as far if Peggy's little jaunt would return her with renewed vigor and an enlivened interest in housework, especially about the kitchen.

On the way to the train Peggy expresses pleasure in the prospect of seeing them milk the cow. She said she was sure she would like to be taught so that she might milk one all by herself.

Mother cheered up at this. Perhaps, the farm atmosphere might inspire in Peggy an eagerness to do something useful. If Peggy should only chance in the kitchen of the farm house at a busy hour, dish washing might take on a fascination. Peggy might wish to be taught to mark the dishes so that she could do them all by herself. There are still a few possibilities in this country visit of Peggy's, thinks mother.

A picnic was given Tuesday night at the Howard E. Johnson home, 23 Greenwood avenue, by the management of the Warren M. Crosby store, for the employees and their families. About 125 guests attended. The party was given on the lawn, which was illuminated by colored electric lights and decorated with flags. The yard was fitted up with garden seats, benches and chairs, and there was instrumental and vocal music for the entertainment of the guests, and the Silver Leaf quartet sang for the company. ## DIES OF BROKEN HEAD.

Man Found in the Street With His Skull Fractured.

Stamford, Conn., June 24.—Waldo R. Ballou, a former member of the city council, died early today at a local hospital of a fracture of the skull. Mrs. Helen M. Angie, a divorced woman, with whom he was acquainted, is under arrest, by order of the coroner, pending investigation of the death.

Ballou was found unconscious on the streets about midnight. At the hospital it was stated today, the physicians were not able to determine, from the preliminary examination, whether the injury was due to a fall or a blow.

It is known that Ballou visited Mrs. Angie frequently and it was generally considered that they had expected to marry. Ballou's hat was found in one of the woman's rooms today and she has admitted to the police that Ballou was at her apartments last night. She denies that there had been any quarrel or unpleasantness between them. At police headquarters she was somewhat hysterical.

Ballou was between 65 and 70 years old and Mrs. Angie is 40.

Some Points of Superiority

Any ONE of Which Should Decide in Favor of the

Victrola

Needles The NEEDLES wear instead of the expensive record. When two substances rub, ONE must give. In the Victor it is the inexpensive needle. Remember this important point.

Records Victor Records are thin, solid and not veneered, hence they do not split, peel or curl or slough off. They can be played thousands of times and still reproduce satisfactory results. A strong point in favor of the Victrola.

Motor Its motor is even in its working and produces a uniform, perfect rhythm, free from jerks and changes in pitch; also you can wind a Victrola while it is playing. This point interests dancers particularly.

Tests WE have TESTED all kinds of talking machines side by side to compare tone, durability and wearing qualities. We have discarded ALL other talking machines and sell ONLY the Victor, because we KNOW it is the best talking machine in the world. An unanswerable point of Victrola superiority.

Most Records The Victor Catalogue contains over 5,000 selections, and the greatest artists in the world contribute to the Victor library. Compare CHARACTER and standing of Victor artists and quality of Victor selections and you will see again why we say best. This point alone should decide you in favor of the Victrola.
